

e3comms ENGLISH FOR ICT Information and Communication Technology COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Syllabus

Lesson Nr.	Topic	Content/Context	Overall and Subsidiary Aims of Class
1	People & Technology	IT companies and IT jobs	Assess participants' oral skills in English; making introductions; creating a friendly and comfortable learning environment; providing course syllabus and relevant information; introducing the general theme of Technology within the organization, IT operations, business and products
2/3	IT Systems	HW components and specifications	Review and expand students' knowledge and English language skills around the general topics of describing processes and giving instructions
4/5	Data Communications	Networking infrastructure	Review and expand students' knowledge and English language skills around the general topics of networking, Internet and mobile infrastructures
6/7	Administration	Databases, systems administration and tools	Review and expand students' knowledge and English language skills around the general topics of DB systems admin issues and tasks, admin tasks, explaining and describing technical problems
8/9	Choice	IT costs and product research and recommendation	Review and expand students' knowledge and English language skills around the general topics of making comparisons and choices in the IT domain
10/11	Interactions	Interconnectivity In the wider context of e-business (enterprise social media and marketing communications, ecommerce, mobile communications)	Review and expand students' knowledge and English language skills around the general topics of current mobile revolution trends
12/13	Development	Website design and architecture and programming languages and Project Management	Review and expand students' knowledge and English language skills around the general topics describing requirements, programming steps, future plans and schedules

Lesson Nr.	Topic	Content/Context	Overall and Subsidiary Aims of Class
14/15	IT Solutions	Making investigations, diagnosing problems and proposing solutions	Review and expand students' knowledge and English language skills around the general topics of IT problems and proposing solutions
16	Review	Your career in IT	General lexis review, discussion on current IT job market trends, final contents revision and assessment

For any further queries, please contact
Fabiola Viti
Tel. +39 329 676.4437
E-mail info@e3comms.com